Arena Safety

The safety of our participants and horses is our top priority at all shows. While in any arena or warm-up area, please follow the following rules. The image provided is from the SHTX rule book and should be used as a guide.

1. ALWAYS look behind you before stopping or slowing down.
2. Practicing rundowns through traffic is not allowed.
3. No stopping in the middle of the pen
4. NO cell phones or earbuds are allowed in the arena.
5. Please do not walk/visit in groups.
6. No tying horses to arena fence.
7. Always look where you are going and be aware of other riders.
8. Ride with the direction of traffic.
9. If there are two circles in the arena, do not ride a loop around the edge of the pen such that you will be going against traffic.
10. If the arena only has space for one circle, ask others when you want to change directions.
